Faithful Footsteps: Exploring the Northern Camino Michelin dining opportunities

Food is an integral part of any holiday & in Europe there are fantastic opportunities to experience Michelin star dining. We have intentionally left dinners free on many occasions so that you can explore the local cuisine for yourself.

For those in the group that consider themselves “foodies” we want to offer you the opportunity to dine in some great restaurants while you are away. Being on the coast, seafood is featured heavily on most menus.

Choose one, some or all!

April 19 Bilbao
